Art Unit: 1722

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office Action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Iida et al. (U.S. Pat. App. Pub. No. 2003/0194464).

Iida discloses a molding assembly for producing optical disks. The assembly includes a flat disk-shaped stamper (8) having a molding surface for forming the micro asperities on the surface of the molded information carrier (¶ 44). An inner peripheral surface of the stamper defines an insertion hole comprising a sloped surface which has a larger diameter on the molding surface side compared with a diameter on an opposing side (see Fig. 3).

The assembly further comprises a stamper holder (1) configured such that an outer periphery of the stamper holder has a gradually increased from an end of a reverse side toward an end of the molding surface to form a sloped surface and to fit in the insertion hole through the central portion of the stamper (Fig. 3). The holder is further as such that its entire outer peripheral surface that is complementary to the inner peripheral surface of the stamper has a sloped shape (Fig. 3).

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 2 and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

4. Claims 3 and 5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new grounds of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
